Thirsting for God

For the Pure and Shining One King David's song when he was exiled in the Judean wilderness

¹O God of my life, I'm lovesick for you in this weary wilderness. I thirst with the deepest longings to love you more, with cravings in my heart that can't be described. Such yearning grips my soul for you, my God! ²I'm energized every time I enter your heavenly sanctuary to seek more of your power and drink in more of your glory. ³For your tender mercies mean more to me than life itself. How I love and praise you, God! ⁴Daily I will worship you passionately and with all my heart. My arms will wave to you like banners of praise. ⁵I overflow with praise when I come before you, for the anointing of your presence satisfies me like nothing else. You are such a rich banquet of pleasure to my soul. ⁶⁻⁷I lie awake each night thinking of you and reflecting on how you help me like a father. I sing through the night under your splendor-shadow, offering up to you my songs of delight and joy! ⁸With passion I pursue and cling to you. Because I feel your grip on my life, I keep my soul close to your heart. ⁹Those who plot to destroy me shall descend into the darkness of hell. ¹⁰They will be consumed by their own evil and become nothing more than dust under our feet. ¹¹These liars will be silenced forever! But with the anointing of a king I will dance and rejoice along with all his devoted lovers who trust in him."

Printed in USA

He came unto his own,
and his own received him not.
But as many as received him,
to them gave he power
to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name.
